Vice Presidents:

- East TN – Chris Welsh – Knoxville and Chattanooga had a successful joint field trip to Seven Islands recently. The spring meeting will be held by the Knoxville Chapter on April 26-28, 2024 at The Ramsey House. The primary hotel will be The Hampton at the Strawberry Plains exit. Keynote Speaker – Tiffany Kirsten. Finally, a Young Birders Club has been jointly formed by Knoxville TOS, Iams Nature Center and Seven Islands State Park.

- Middle TN – Steve Routledge – no report

- West TN – Dick Preston – Memphis Chapter member, Dr. Kelly Miller, University of Memphis, has started a window collision monitoring program at the University in conjunction with Bird Safe Memphis. Bird Safe Memphis wants to know which buildings on campus are causing collision risks so mitigation can begin to reduce the risk. Several MTOS members have joined in on the efforts. Chapter members continue placing, monitoring and maintaining nest boxes for Eastern Bluebirds, Barn Owls and Purple Martins.

Secretary - Cyndi Routledge – Request for any updates of officers, State Directors etc….for TOS webpage. Please send in an email to me.

Treasurer – Pam Lasley – TOS remains in excellent financial shape. Our Membership dollars and dividends on investments are running roughly the same as last year. We unfortunately have only awarded $2735 in Grants this year. We had a larger than normal run of Discover Birds Activity books which are flying out the door. We have produced 3 editions of The Migrant this year. The annual cost of printing and mailing The Tennessee Warbler is now gone ($3500), but we are now paying $29 a month for MailChimp to distribute The Warbler electronically. The new stipend for TOS meetings enabled Nashville to invite a world-class speaker for the Spring Meeting. Our investments have regained roughly half of what we lost last year in Market Value although the third quarter was a bit disappointing. Full financial results will be presented at the Spring 2024 meeting in Knoxville. TOS would also like to extend a personal thank you to the families of John Richard Hay III and Robert Maynard from leaving bequests to TOS in their respective wills. TOS received $6000 in total from these families.

Directors-at-Large:
- East TN – Susan Hubley – No report
- Middle TN – Mac McWhirter – No report
- West TN – Allan Trently – No report
- Curator – Stefan Woltmann – no report

Migrant – Editor – Bob Ford – Susan McWhirter reported on Bob’s behalf. The Migrant remains generally on schedule with publication and mailing approximately 6 months after the issue date. The March 2023 issue of The Migrant is at the printer now and should be mailed soon. In this issue we have The Season report once again. Graham Gerdeman has stepped up to be state-wide editor as well as the middle Tennessee regional editor. Other regional editors are Dick Preston (west TN), Bruce Dralle (Cumberland Plateau/Highland Rim), and Rick Knight (Eastern Mountains). There are some changes to The Season Report with more changes to follow. Graham is open to feedback on the report and encourages those with ideas to contact him. Many thanks to Graham and the regional editors for their work.

All of the issues of The Migrant are available on the Searchable Ornithological Research Archives (SORA) network. SORA has been housed at the University of New Mexico but is moving to the University of South Florida. On behalf of TOS, we have agreed to an MOU that moves The Migrant there for archiving on SORA.

The Migrant needs articles and Round Table Notes, book reviews, and other content for publication. If you have an idea of something you would like to contribute, but don’t know if it’s appropriate or how to write it, please contact me. In addition to Round Table Notes and longer articles, there are a number of recent events that deserve an article in The Migrant. Bob is looking for anyone interested in compiling the 2023 “Limpkin Invasion” or Hurricane Idalia’s Flamingo sightings.
