

Results of the Elizabethton Bird Club Western Washington County Field Trip

February 4, 2023

A total of 16 birders participated in the Western Washington County Field trip on February 4, 2023. The group left from Ingles in Jonesborough and hit several birding spots including Henderson Wetlands, Saylor Hill Road, McInturf Road, Keebler Road, and a the West View Farm Pond. A total of 4 species were observed including great looks at Red-headed woodpeckers, Horned Lark, and Loggerhead Shrike. Here is the list of species identified.

Canada Goose	American Kestrel	White-crowned Sparrow
Mallard	Eastern Phoebe	Song sparrow
Ring-necked Duck	Loggerhead Shrike	Swamp Sparrow
Wild turkey	Blue Jay	Eastern Towhee
Rock Pigeon	American Crow	Eastern Meadowlark
Mourning Dove	Horned Lark	Yellow-rumped Warbler
Great Blue Heron	Carolina Chickadee	Northern Cardinal
Black Vulture	Tufted Titmouse
Turkey Vulture	White-breasted Nuthatch
Sharp-shinned Hawk	Carolina Wren
Red-tailed Hawk	Ruby-crowned Kinglet
Eastern Screech Owl	Eastern Bluebird
Belted Kingfisher	American Robin
Red-headed Woodpecker	Northern Mockingbird
Red-bellied Woodpecker	European Starling
Yellow-bellied Sapsucker	House Sparrow
Downy Woodpecker	House Finch
Northern Flicker	Field Sparrow
Pileated Woodpecker	Dark-eyed Junco

Thanks to all that participated! Thanks Debi for posting on Ebird! Joe McGuinness